4. One turning diamond, of 0.61 carat, was picked up on the inventory as finished as of 1 December 1953.
5. In order to cover scheduled releases of tool diamonds during the month of November 1953, 45.0 carats of rough diamonds were removed from the category of "rough diamonds for drawing dies". Consequently, the stores for "rough diamonds for drawing dies" were debited with 45.0 carats and the stores for "rough tool diamonds" were credited with the same amount.
6. The following table shows diamonds which were removed during November 1953 from the government stores inventory of tool diamonds but were actually used for drawing dies.
